Volunteering Expression of Interest

Abdullah ibn Mas'ud reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said,

“You must be truthful.

Verily, truthfulness leads to righteousness and righteousness leads to Paradise.

A man continues to be truthful and encourages honesty until he is recorded with Allah as truthful.

And beware of falsehood.

Verily, falsehood leads to wickedness and wickedness leads to the Hellfire.

A man continues tell lies and encourages falsehood until he is recorded with Allah as a liar.”

Volunteer Code of Conduct

At Madrassa Faizul Islam Volunteers are expected to follow the Charity Code of Conduct which is based on the seven principles of public life, as detailed below,

1. Selflessness

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

2. Integrity

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

3. Objectivity

Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

4. Accountability

Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

5. Openness

Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

6. Honesty

Holders of public office should be truthful.

7. Leadership

Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.
